

Name _____

Rules for Using the Comma 3

- Use a comma to separate two or more adjectives that equally modify the same noun. (Hint Say the sentence with the word and in place of the comma. If it makes sense, use the comma.)
The long, winding road scares me.
- Use a comma to indicate where a pause is necessary in order to avoid confusion.
After Willy, Jean will be the next person to perform.
What the problem is, is not clear yet.
- Use a comma before the abbreviation etc.
Remember to pack supplies such as paper, pencils, pens, etc.
- Use a comma to set off a phrase that indicates contrast.
Puppies are cute, but rambunctious.
- Use a comma to clarify large numbers.
1,874,442 1,244

Directions: Edit the sentence and add any needed commas.

1. Mandy received 19837432 votes.
2. You need to come in in time to eat supper.
3. Emily can act very honest but is not to be trusted.
4. You need to pack shirts, shoes, socks, pajamas etc.
5. I love to eat sticky gooey cinnamon rolls for breakfast.

Name _____

Rules for Using the Comma 3

- Use a comma to separate two or more adjectives that equally modify the same noun. (Hint Say the sentence with the word and in place of the comma. If it makes sense, use the comma.)
The long, winding road scares me.
- Use a comma to indicate where a pause is necessary in order to avoid confusion.
After Willy, Jean will be the next person to perform.
What the problem is, is not clear yet.
- Use a comma before the abbreviation etc.
Remember to pack supplies such as paper, pencils, pens, etc.
- Use a comma to set off a phrase that indicates contrast.
Puppies are cute, but rambunctious.
- Use a comma to clarify large numbers.
1,874,442 1,244

Directions: Edit the sentence and add any needed commas.

1. Mandy received 19,837,432 votes.
2. You need to come in, in time to eat supper.
3. Emily can act very honest, but is not to be trusted.
4. You need to pack shirts, shoes, socks, pajamas, etc.
5. I love to eat sticky, gooey cinnamon rolls for breakfast.

