Winter Holiday’s and Activities

Winter is a bittersweet time for many people. It is bitter because of the harsh weather that people know is coming. Some parts of the world get so cold that you can get windburn on your face, or your lips can get very chapped from the cold and wind. For some people, winter signifies having to shovel driveways, and having to put salt on sidewalks so that people don’t slip and fall.

Even though the weather conditions in winter are not the best. Many people actually enjoy winter. There are many beautiful things in winter. There are also many holidays during the winter season. In addition to the beautiful surroundings, and the fun holidays, I like to take part in plenty of winter activities.

Winter is beautiful in many different ways. The main reason why people think winter is pretty is all the white snow surrounding everything. It is so pretty to look outside and see the ground and trees covered with white snow. Another reason why it is so nice looking outside during the winter season has to do with all of the decorations that people put up. Winter is the season of Christmas, and everywhere you look, there are pretty lights and decorations hanging from the outside of people’s houses.

Everyone loves holidays, and it just seems like winter has the most holidays. In the wintertime, you can enjoy Hanukkah, Christmas, and New Year’s Eve. Holidays are always fun, and this is another great reason why people love winter!

Even though it is cold outside, spending time outdoors can still be enjoyable. If there is, snow outside you can go sledding! If the snow is right, it is fun to make snow angels and build igloos. Another fun thing to do outside during the wintertime is to go to an ice skating rink. Ice skating is somewhat difficult at first, but once you get the hang of it, it can be a fun activity.

Winter is a great season, and everyone should take advantage of the fun things that there are to do in each season. Winter is the only season that has snow, and it is very enjoyable to be able to get involved in the beauty of the season. Whatever the season is, it is always important to have fun with your family.
Winter Holiday’s and Activities Free Response and Writing Activity

Write your answers in complete sentences.

1. What is your favorite winter activity? Explain why.

____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

2. How are plants and animals able to live during a long cold winter?

____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

3. Describe two outdoor activities you did last winter. Whom did you do them with?

____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

4. What is your favorite season of the Year? Explain why?

____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________