

Name _____

Date _____

Using Subtraction to Solve Word Problems

Use Subtraction to solve the word problems below. A helpful tip when solving any type of word problem is to make sure your last step is always checking your answer.

Austin had 5 pages in his book to read. He read some at home and then he still had 2 pages left to read. How many pages did Austin read at home?

There were 6 children in a pool. 2 of the children got out to have a snack. How many children were left in the pool?

Sarah brought 10 grapes to school for snack time. She gave 3 grapes to one of her friends. How many grapes did Sarah have left?

Name _____

Date _____

Using Subtraction to Solve Word Problems

Use Subtraction to solve the word problems below. A helpful tip when solving any type of word problem is to make sure your last step is always checking your answer.

Austin had 5 pages in his book to read. He read some at home and then he still had 2 pages left to read. How many pages did Austin read at home?

Austin read 3 pages at home.

There were 6 children in a pool. 2 of the children got out to have a snack. How many children were left in the pool?

There were 4 children left in the pool.

Sarah brought 10 grapes to school for snack time. She gave 3 grapes to one of her friends. How many grapes did Sarah have left?

Sarah had 7 grapes left.

