Making Number Sentences

Solve the following word problems by writing a number sentence. Make sure your number sentence has an operation sign and an equal sign.

If there are 4 kids playing football and 8 more kids join them, how many kids are playing football?

_____

6 teachers are eating lunch and 5 more teachers join them, how many teachers are eating lunch?

_____

If there are 7 construction workers digging a hole and 2 more construction workers join them, how many construction workers are digging a hole?

_____

4 girls are on the swing set and 4 more girls join them, how many girls are on the swing set?

_____

Name _____

Making Number Sentences

Answer Key

Write the answers as a number sentence.

If there are 4 kids playing football and 8 more kids join them, how many kids are playing football?

4 + 8 = 12

6 teachers are eating lunch and 5 more teachers join them, how many teachers are eating lunch?

6 +5 = 11

If there are 7 construction workers digging a hole and 2 more construction workers join them, how many construction workers are digging a hole?

7 + 2 = 9

4 girls are on the swing set and 4 more girls join them, how many girls are on the swing set?

4 + 4 = 8

_____