

Name _____

Date _____

How Many?

In this worksheet, we will practice counting objects in linear configurations. That means that we will practice counting objects that are in a straight line.

For example, How many balls are there?

There are 4 balls.

1. How many pinwheels are there?

There are _____ pinwheels.

2. How many robots are there?

There are _____ robots.

3. How many rockets are there?

There are _____ rockets.

4. How many dolls are there?

There are _____ dolls.

5. How many stacking toys are there?

There are _____ stacking toys.

Answer Key

How Many?

In this worksheet, we will practice counting objects in linear configurations. That means that we will practice counting objects that are in a straight line.

For example, How many balls are there?

There are 4 balls.

1. How many pinwheels are there?

There are 7 pinwheels.

2. How many robots are there?

There are 9 robots.

3. How many rockets are there?

There are 12 rockets.

4. How many dolls are there?

There are 15 dolls.

5. How many stacking toys are there?

There are 10 stacking toys.

