

Name _____

Date _____

Subject and Verb Agreement

A verb should agree in number with its subject.

Singular subjects take singular verbs. Example: The bird likes me.

Plural subjects take plural verbs. Example: The birds love me.

Directions: Underline the verb in each sentence. If the subject and verb do not agree, write the correct verb form above the error. If it is correct, write C above it.

are

Example: The birds is building their nests in our trees.

1. The cutest little bird have built a nest in our apple tree.
2. She work all day on her nest.
3. She has even lined it with grass to make it soft.
4. I hope she are going to lay eggs in it very soon.
5. I thinks baby birds are so cute!
6. They sound so sweet when they chirp for their mother.
7. My family enjoy watching the mother bird while she teaches them how to fly.
8. When they is trying to learn to fly, I wonder if they are scared.
9. We is going to watch for the baby birds to hatch this year.
10. They will be safe because the mother bird are building a good nest.
11. The wonders of nature is really fascinating.
12. Flowers blooming and birds singing makes me want to smile.
13. If you takes the time to look around you, you will sees how great nature is.
14. From birds singing to squirrels playing, animals offers us much entertainment.
15. So be observant and enjoy nature's gift of animals at their best.

Subject and Verb Agreement

A verb should agree in number with its subject.

Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: The bird likes me.

Plural subjects take plural verbs.

Example: The birds love me.

Directions: Underline the verb(s) in each sentence. If the subject and verb do not agree, write the correct verb form above the error. If it is correct, write C above it.

are

Example: The birds is building their nests in our trees.

has

1. The cutest little bird have built a nest in our apple tree.

works

2. She work all day on her nest.

C

3. She has even lined it with grass to make it soft.

C

is

4. I hope she are going to lay eggs in it very soon.

think

C

5. I thinks baby birds are so cute!

C

C

6. They sound so sweet when they chirp for their mother.

enjoys

C

7. My family enjoy watching the mother bird while she teaches them how to fly.

are

C

C

8. When they is trying to learn to fly, I wonder if they are scared.

are

9. We is going to watch for the baby birds to hatch this year.

C

is

10. They will be safe because the mother bird are building a good nest.

are

11. The wonders of nature is really fascinating.

make

C

12. Flowers blooming and birds singing makes me want to smile.

take

see

C

13. If you takes the time to look around you, you will sees how great nature is.

offer

14. From birds singing to squirrels playing, animals offers us much entertainment.

C

C

15. So be observant and enjoy nature's gift of animals at their best.

